Champaign County

Proposition To Establish In Champaign County, Illinois An Elected County Executive Form Of Government Without Home Rule

Shall the County of Champaign, Illinois adopt the elected County Executive form of government and maintain its current non-Home-Rule status? YES

NO

(If approved this measure would separate the Executive from the Legislative branch of government, a principle of the United States Constitution. It would replace the current system which combines Executive and Legislative functions in the County Board and in which the Board Chairman is elected by the Board members rather than by the voters.)
